

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF KANSAS

IN RE: EpiPen (Epinephrine Injection, USP) Marketing,
Sales Practices and Antitrust Litigation

MDL No: 2785

Case No. 17-md-2785-DDC-TJJ

(This Document Applies to Consumer Class Cases)

SCHEDULING ORDER NO. 11

With this Scheduling Order No. 11, the court vacates two deadlines previously established by Scheduling Order No. 9 (Doc. 1832). Specifically, the court vacates: (1) the February 21, 2020 deadline for submitting the proposed Pretrial Order; and (2) the March 10, 2020 Final Pretrial Conference.

After the court issues its forthcoming Order ruling plaintiffs' Motion for Class Certification, the court will ask the parties to confer about appropriate deadlines and settings to govern the case's future. And, the court will ask the parties to provide new proposed deadlines to the court. After receiving the parties' submissions, the court will enter a revised Scheduling Order establishing new deadlines to govern the remaining phases of this case.<sup>1</sup>

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED BY THE COURT that the court vacates the deadlines for submitting the proposed Pretrial Order and the date of the Pretrial Conference established by Scheduling Order No. 9 (Doc. 1832).

<sup>1</sup> The court is mindful that the current deadlines for dispositive and Daubert motions (and responses) may be overly ambitious. But, to date, the parties haven't suggested any amendment to those deadlines, and the court leaves them unchanged for now.
